Terms of Service

Last updated: 11 October 2026

These terms apply to your use of MedWithRish websites, accounts, tutoring, digital resources and subscription services.

About the service

MedWithRish provides educational and admissions-preparation content. It is not medical, legal, financial or university admissions advice, and no outcome, score, offer or interview result is guaranteed.

Accounts

You must provide accurate information, keep your login details secure, and promptly tell us about unauthorised use. You are responsible for activity under your account. We may suspend access where necessary for security, misuse or breach of these terms.

Purchases and subscriptions

Prices, billing frequency and what is included are shown at checkout. Subscription charges are billed in advance through Stripe at the interval selected. You authorise recurring charges until you cancel. You can manage or cancel an eligible subscription through the billing portal or by contacting us.

Digital content and acceptable use

Content is licensed to you for personal, non-commercial use. You must not copy, resell, redistribute, scrape, share account access, impersonate another person, interfere with the service, or use content to train or build a competing service without written permission.

Tutoring

Tutoring sessions depend on availability and must be attended at the agreed time. Please give reasonable notice if you need to reschedule. Specific session cancellation and refund terms are set out in the applicable purchase information.

Intellectual property

MedWithRish and its content, branding, software and materials belong to us or our licensors. Except for the limited personal-use licence above, no rights are transferred to you.

Refunds and statutory rights

Our refund and cancellation policy is available in `refund-and-cancellation-policy.md`. Nothing in these terms limits rights that cannot legally be excluded, including applicable consumer rights.

Availability and liability

We aim to keep the service available and accurate, but we do not promise uninterrupted access or that content is complete or suitable for every applicant. To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for indirect or consequential loss. Nothing excludes liability for fraud, death or personal injury caused by negligence, or other liability that cannot legally be excluded.

Changes and termination

We may update, withdraw or change parts of the service. We may terminate or suspend access for serious or repeated breach. Provisions intended to continue, including payment obligations, intellectual-property rights and limitations of liability, will continue.

Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales, subject to any mandatory consumer protections that apply to you.
